

VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE 2021

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) is available for the 2020 tax season. IRS trained volunteers are able to prepare and e-file your taxes for you for free!

Individuals and joint households are eligible if they earned $56,000 or less in 2020.

In order to receive tax assistance, filers must:

- Confirm an appointment with a United Way of Horry County staff member
- Present photo ID for you and your spouse on the tax return
- Present Social Security cards for themselves and all dependents
- Present all wage determining statements (W-2, W-G, 1099-R, 1099-Misc) for you, your spouse, and dependents
- Provide Interest and Dividend statements from banks (Forms 1099)
- Present an Individual Tax Payer Identification Number (ITIN) and proof of foreign status (if applicable)
- Birth dates for you, your spouse, and dependents on the tax return
- Present Health Insurance Exemption Certificate, if received
- Present a copy of last year's state and federal returns (if available)
- Proof of bank account routing and account numbers for direct deposit
- To file taxes electronically on a married-filing-joint tax return, both spouses must be present to sign the forms
- Provide total paid for daycare provider and the daycare provider's tax identifying number
- Present Forms 1095-A, B, and C, Health Coverage Statements
