Attention... Staff members are busy preparing for the upcoming Summer Reading program, which begins May 27. Youth Services will offer a limited program schedule this month to accommodate Summer Reading promotion at our local schools. Keep an eye out for our full summer schedule coming soon!

Sign-up and start reading on May 27th!

Are you ready for summer? We are super excited about the programs we have put together this year and hope that you will be too! I heard something about a NASA 6-part Docurama and a celebration of the moon landing. Oh, and speaking of celebrating, Chapin Library's 70th Anniversary is also coming up in June and we are planning to party!

We have a ton of stuff planned this summer for all ages and we hope that you will participate and enjoy the different programs and events we have planned! Looking forward to seeing some old and new faces this year. We are excited!
