Hello from Chapin Memorial Library!

We hope that you all are doing well and staying healthy. The past few months, we have focused on core library services as we continue to practice social distancing in the library. As we head toward Spring, we are increasing our virtual programs and launching new offerings. Look at what we have planned!

hoopla®

can be downloaded to your device and your library card allows you to check out 6 items per month at no cost to you! That means you have access to more audio and ebooks, movies, music, graphic novels and television. Try it out and let us know if you enjoy the service.

All programs will be held on the ZOOM platform. Registration provides you a link to the ZOOM session.

Virtual Probate Issues Free Legal Clinic

Tuesday, Mar. 9 • 2:00pm-3:00 pm

Registration required, admission free

South Carolina Bar's Pro Bono legal clinic will provide general information on the topic. The clinic will consist of a 30-45 minute presentation followed by an open question and answer session with an attorney. Registration is required for the ZOOM link. Register at <https://www.chapinlibrary.org/calendar>.

You may submit a general question on the topic in advance of the clinic, please contact Laura and the request will be forwarded to the attorney. The attorney cannot get into specific legal aspects as this clinic is only for informational purposes. Questions, please email Laura at reference@chapinlibrary.org or call 843-918-1282.

Virtual – The Short Story Café

6-Week Discussion Series

Thursdays at 6:30pm-8:00pm • Begins Apr. 1

Registration required, admission free.

Local short-story writer Dave Sylvester hosts The Short Story Café, a lively and informal discussion of the short story form that examines how authors handle structural elements such as plot, character, point-of-view, and theme in their writing.

Each session of this six-week series we will read and discuss two (sometimes three) stories by well-known (and some lesser known) contemporary masters of the form. Writing experience is not required, but this is a writer-friendly discussion.

All materials will be available in advance via email and at the circulation desk and should be read before the weekly discussions. Register at <https://www.chapinlibrary.org/calendar>. Questions, call Lisa 843-918-1275 or email weaver@chapinlibrary.org.

Would you like a digital newsletter? Signup online <https://www.chapinlibrary.org/maillinglists> or call 843-918-1282 or email reference@chapinlibrary.org. We'd ♥ to add you! :O)
