A New Kind of Assistance - Community Resource Coordinator

Get pointed in the right direction! Sometimes finding the help you need is difficult, and all you need is to be pointed in the right direction or connected to the right resource. United Way of Horry County has developed a new program as a strategy to help Horry County individuals and families to become self-sufficient.

The Community Resource Coordinator program will provide intensive care management by assessing clients' strengths and needs, making referrals, helping to develop goals, and coaching them on to their path to financial stability. Angela can assist with Medicare/Medicaid; SNAP; checking eligibility for social security benefits; services for job seekers - resumes, continuing education, application assistance; and more. To contact Angela Mangiapane, call 843-742-1515 or email Angela@unitedwayhorry.org. Angela will be at the library half-days on Wednesdays and Thursdays.
